the red true story book needs no long introduction the editor in presenting the blue true story book apologised for offering tales so much less thrilling and romantic than the legends of the fairies but he added that even real facts were sometimes curious and interesting next year he promises something quite as true as history and quite as entertaining as fairies for this book mr rider haggard has kindly prepared a narrative of wilson s last fight by aid of conversations with mr burnham the gallant american scout but mr haggard found while writing his chapter that mr burnham had already told the story in an interview published by the westminster gazette the courtesy of the proprietor of that journal and of mr burnham has permitted mr haggard to incorporate the already printed narrative with his own matter the life and death of joan the maid is by the editor who has used m quicherat s procès five volumes published for the historical society of france with m quicherat s other researches he has also used m wallon s biography the works of father ayroles s j the jeanne d arc à domremy of m siméon luce the works of m sepet of michelet of henri martin and generally all printed documents to which he has had access of unprinted contemporary matter perhaps none is known to exist except the viii venetian correspondence now being prepared for publication by father ayroles how the bass was held for king james is by the editor mainly from blackadder s life
