Walking Worthy of My Calling 1785 the subject of this study is freedom within the press the nature and limits of the protection afforded to the journalistic imparting process which has been a neglected area of research the analysis draws on the classical defenders of freedom of speech milton and mill to show that at the dawn of the 21st century the intertwined alliance between big business and public authorities resulting in the widespread phenomena of self censorship within the media constitutes an almost insurmountable obstacle instead of enlightening the public and inspiring the individual the press may be contributing to an inert public and individual cowardice antithetical to the objectives of human dignity and democracy the core of the problem is that prima facie the infringement of freedom within the media is not exercised on legal premises and cannot therefore be solved within the legal framework the operation of the press in society is conditioned by three types of regulation legal regulation market regulation and self regulation legal regulation does not adequately presuppose the impact of the latter as it is based on the assumption that press freedom is mainly a negative liberty the book explores the affirmative side of article 10 of the european convention on human rights to guarantee press freedom that is not merely illusory but practical and effective convention jurisprudence has not only influenced the domestic courts of the contracting parties but also the legislators of the member states in an era of globalization dominant media operators wield power in their own domestic markets to impede national regulators in adopting interventionist media policies to secure journalistic freedoms the convention jurisprudence represents a kind of european ius commune which is here set in the context of an analysis reflecting the problems and values at issue and offering recommendations to alleviate a situation which threatens democratic ideals and public spirited journalism

The Gospel of Christ Worthy of All Acceptation; Or, the Obligations of Men Fully to Credit ... Whatever God Makes Known, Etc 1805 malaysia's highly centralized and tightly controlled system of education fails in educating and integrating the young it is also ill suited for a plural society instead of the present rigid and uniform system the writer calls for one that is flexible and diverse but with a core of commonality there should also be private sector participation to provide competition and spur innovation achieving this requires radically changing the ministry of education from one obsessed with strict top down command to a more democratized model with power and responsibilities delegated to the periphery the minister is less a drill sergeant barking out orders to his raw recruits but more of a symphony conductor coaxing the best out of his skilled musicians the reforms suggested here will make malaysians fluently bilingual in malay and english science literate and mathematically competent as well as foster a common malaysian identity

In a series of letters to a friend 2020-02-04 have you ever thought of how much god was worth have you ever hazarded a guess of how much you are worth the idea of calculating the worth of god is one that may be accounted as sacrilegious man attempting to assign a value to the person of god think of it what a travesty but this is a sentiment that is ever before the eyes of a suffering saint how much is your belief in god worth is it worth enough for you to face persecution victimization targeting for assault and affliction many who have died for god's sake and who may have endured the life of martyrdom would gladly answer that it is worth much more than life itself more than life itself
