les œuvres d'art brut du Japon présentées dans cet ouvrage portent l'empreinte du raffinement et de la délicatesse propres à la société japonaise. Toutefois, l'emprise de la culture japonaise a très peu d'impact sur ces créateurs marginaux. Le choix des sujets et les procédés de figuration sont formulés de manière si originale qu'ils donnent lieu à des productions réellement alternatives bousculant nos principes et nos repères face à la société japonaise hyper performante et compétitive. L'inventivité de ces auteurs autodidactes se développe à la faveur d'un processus primaire et pulsionnel déployant une expression archaïque qui dote les œuvres d'une portée universelle. L'art brut du Japon déclenche un court-circuit magistral. Ma Yuan émerge comme un artiste qui capture la réalité de la saison, du temps et de l'humeur dans un style éblouissantement abrégé, qui est néanmoins totalement convaincant dans sa représentation du monde naturel. Maxwell K. Hearn, Metropolitan Museum of Art, et Richard Edwards et Ma Yuan ont quelque chose en commun : ils sont tous deux profondément engagés dans le travail d'art et le médium de la peinture à l'encre. Comme Ma Yuan, son travail de brosse est formellement réticent, mais il possède une puissance expressive.

this book is a major contribution to the literature on the art of ink painting at the southern song court robert sharf university of california berkeley ma yuan one of china s best known artists was a key figure in the period widely celebrated as the golden era of chinese landscape painting the heart of ma yuan offers a careful discussion of ma yuan s painting as it emerged within the sophisticated artistic environment of hangzhou in the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries beautifully illustrated with more than 300 illustrations from leading museums and private collections around the world the book includes discussions of ma yuan s family of six generations of skillful painters his many patrons and his distinctive style in engaging confucian taoist and buddhist genres and his superb landscapes including animals flowers and detailed studies of water widely noted for his own keen eye and masterful stylistic analysis richard edwards cultivates the art of looking for a broad readership from general art lovers to specialists in art history as a western scholar exploring the significance of a highly refined eastern culture he draws on natural history poetry and relevant contemporary writing as well as the work of other artists mad works in forward looking environments developing futuristic architecture based on a contemporary interpretation of the eastern spirit of nature all of mad s projects from residential complexes or offices to cultural centres desire to protect a sense of community and orientation toward nature offering people the freedom to develop their own experience founded in 2004 by ma yansong the office first earned worldwide attention in 2006 by winning an international competition to design a residential tower near toronto expected to be completed in the summer of 2012 mad has been commissioned by clients of all backgrounds leading to an intriguing combination of diverse project designs mad s ongoing projects include two major cultural projects in harbin the china wood sculpture museum and harbin culture island an opera house and cultural center that will retain the original wetlands as an urban park between the old and new city mad is led by ma yansong dang qun and yosuke hayano they have been awarded the young architecture award from the new york institute of architects in 2006 and the 2011 riba international fellowship the workshops in look ma hands on poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry they do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language the workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing as a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem they may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works finally there are exciting ideas in look ma hands on poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry the workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments in the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing in the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems as a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or twoweek poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy workshops in the book include the sleight of hand and animal mask workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems they use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the native american chant and rap workshops and then they literally play with words to write bingo and multiple voice poems young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the blues love potion and ode workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing bubble and rainbow poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in echphrastic poems the book s final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays suggestions for readings include the poetry cafe which can incorporate any of the coffee house tea room 1950 s diner and or greco roman garden venues discussed in this section student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections the masvani may be called the divina commedia or the paradise lost of islam a summary of religious thought a théodicée justifying the way of allah to man and a standard

Han Ma 2011-03-01 Ma Yuan emerges as an artist who captures the reality of season time and mood in a dazzlingly abbreviated style that is nonetheless utterly convincing in its rendering of the natural world Maxwell K. Hearn Metropolitan Museum of Art Richard Edwards and Ma Yuan have something in common both are deeply committed to the work of art and the medium of ink painting and like Ma Yuan's brushwork Edwards's prose couples formal restraint with expressive power this book is a major contribution to the literature on the art of ink painting at the Southern Song court Robert Sharf University of California Berkeley Ma Yuan one of China's best known artists was a key figure in the period widely celebrated as the golden era of Chinese landscape painting The Heart of Ma Yuan offers a careful discussion of Ma Yuan's painting as it emerged within the sophisticated artistic environment of Hangzhou in the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries beautifully illustrated with more than 300 illustrations from leading museums and private collections around the world the book includes discussions of ma yuan s family of six generations of skillful painters his many patrons and his distinctive style in engaging confucian taoist and buddhist genres and his superb landscapes including animals flowers and detailed studies of water widely noted for his own keen eye and masterful stylistic analysis richard edwards cultivates the art of looking for a broad readership from general art lovers to specialists in art history as a western scholar exploring the significance of a highly refined eastern culture he draws on natural history poetry and relevant contemporary writing as well as the work of other artists
