alessandro manzoni s 1827 historical novel the betrothed is widely considered the most important and widely read italian novel the book is set in northern italy in 1628 at a time when the country was under spanish rule it is recognized for its vivid description of the plague that afflicted milan around 1630 as well as its criticism of the austrian empire which had power over the region at the time the novel opens as renzo and lucia a couple who lives in lombardy are planning to get married the night before they are to be married the parish priest don abbondio is walking home on his way he encounters two men who tell him not to oversee the marriage as it has been forbidden by don rodrigo the local baron the next day when renzo shows up for his wedding he is surprised to hear that it has been postponed he finds out that don rodrigo has been eyeing his bride to be and that he is responsible for the delay of the marriage renzo devises a plan to have an impromptu wedding as at this point in time it was possible for him and lucia to simply declare themselves married in front of a priest and two witnesses their plans go awry and don rodrigo sends men to break into lucia s home although she is not there it is clear to the couple that it is no longer safe for them to remain in lombardy and that they must venture elsewhere to get married friar christopher sends them to a friar in milan and they begin to organize their journey when renzo arrives in milan he finds the city stricken with famine he heads to the monastery in hopes of tracking down the monk but does not find him there renzo wanders the city witnessing a mob destroying a local bakery and then attempting to lynch the commissioner of supply just as they are about to do so the grand chancellor arrives in a coach and says that he has come to take the commissioner of supply to prison renzo helps the grand chancellor to make his way through the crowd becoming a recognizable figure to the public after a hectic day renzo stops at a nearby inn where he is given much to drink until he ends up revealing his name and address the next morning when he wakes up he finds a notary and two bailiffs who take him away in handcuffs renzo causes a ruckus in the street claiming that he is being unjustly persecuted

for his actions the previous day he incites the sympathy of onlookers who aid him in making his escape he decides to leave milan and make his way to bergamo where his cousin bortolo lives in a village nearby once he reaches this place he will be safely out of the clutches of the milanese authorities on his journey renzo learns that a warrant for his arrest is being widely circulated he picks up the pace realizing that he is in grave danger lucia receives news of the warrant at the convent where she is staying but she is assured that renzo is safe with his cousin don rodrigo devises a plan to kidnap lucia from the convent hiring a man referred to as the unnamed to carry out his bidding while lucia is out running an errand away from the convent she is taken in the street and tossed into a nearby coach after a harrowing journey lucia arrives at the robber baron s castle and is locked in a room tormented by his actions and the sight of lucia the unnamed has trouble sleeping that night lying awake wrestling with his thoughts lucia lies awake as well fretting about her fate and vowing that if she survives this she will take the veil and become a nun when morning comes the unnamed looks out of his window and sees hoards of people all heading in the same direction to meet the famous archbishop of milan something overtakes the unnamed and he decides he must go too and meet this man when he does something in him shifts and he decides to make a great change in his life he informs his men he will no longer live a life of crime and decides to free lucia and take her back to her home
