new york times bestselling author kay hooper takes readers on a terrifying manhunt for a serial killer even the special crimes unit may not be able to stop dani justice knows all about monsters they haunt her dreams and her life but she never expected to find herself on the trail of a real flesh and blood predator so cunning that he s eluded the best law enforcement could send against him and so deadly that he doesn't hesitate to kill even a senator's daughter or a cop. Dani doesn't want to hunt this killer but she doesn't have a choice. She alone commands a weapon powerful enough to stop him and she knows something even the bishop of the FBI's special crimes unit doesn't know. Dani knows how the hunt ends. It ends in fire and blood and death. What she doesn't know is who will survive.

Art and Ritual of the Byzantine Church 2007-12-31

In the 88 years between its establishment by the victorious armies of the first crusade and its collapse following the disastrous defeat at Hattin, the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem was the site of vibrant artistic and architectural activity as the crusaders rebuilt some of Christendom's most sacred churches or embellished others with murals and mosaics. A unique and highly original art was created, focusing on the sculptural, mosaic, and mural cycles adorning some of the most important shrines in the kingdom, such as the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the Basilica of the Annunciation, and the Church of the Nativity. This book offers a broad perspective of crusader art and architecture among the many aspects discussed are competition among pilgrimage sites, crusader manipulation of biblical models, the image of the Muslim and others, building on recent developments in the fields of patronage studies and reception theory. The book offers a study of the complex ways in which crusader art addressed its diverse audiences: Franks, indigenous Eastern Christians, pilgrims, while serving the intentions of its patrons. Of particular interest to scholars and students of the Crusades and of crusader art as well as scholars and students of medieval art in general, this book will appeal to all those engaging with intercultural encounters, acculturation, Christian-Muslim relations, pilgrimage, the Holy Land, medieval devotion, and theology.

among the world's greatest technological and imaginative achievements is the invention and development of the timepiece. Examining for the first time the Metropolitan Museum of Art's unparalleled collection of European clocks and watches created from the late Renaissance through the nineteenth century, this fascinating book enriches our understanding of the origins and evolution of these ingenious works. It showcases fifty-four clocks, watches, and other timekeeping devices, each represented with an in-depth description and new photography of the exterior and the inner mechanisms. Among these masterpieces is an ornate sixteenth-century celestial timepiece that accurately predicts the trajectory of the sun, moon, and stars; an eighteenth-century longcase clock by David Roentgen that shows the time in the ten most important cities of the day; and a nineteenth-century watch featuring a penetrating portrait of Czar Nicholas I of Russia. Created by the best craftsmen in Austria, England, Flanders, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, and Switzerland, these magnificent timepieces have been selected for their remarkable beauty and design, as well as their sophisticated mechanics. Built upon decades of expert research, this publication is a long overdue survey of these stunning visual and technological marvels.

Shaping Identities in a Holy Land 1898

From New York Times bestselling author Kay Hooper comes a novel of suspense, mystery, and seduction that begins at the scene of a crime and brings a man and woman together in a dangerous partnership that could cost them everything. What she was doing was immoral, illegal, and could easily get her killed, but Troy Bennett wasn't apologizing to anyone she'd been caught red-handed in the middle of a felony and she couldn't have picked a more dangerous man to be holding her fate in his hands not that straitlaced businessman Dallas Cameron intended to turn her over to the law he had far more devious intentions for the sexy cat burglar he planned to uncover the secrets of this complex and mysterious woman who broke into homes and yet had connections with Interpol who rejected his interest but seduced him at every turn thief security expert art aficionado Washington D.C. hostess to the rich famous and immensely powerful who was Troy Bennett would answering that question take Dallas over the line he always drew between good and evil and plunge both of them into the darker side of desire

European Clocks and Watches in The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1940

Gershom Scholem is celebrated as the twentieth century's most profound student of the Jewish mystical tradition Walter Benjamin as a master thinker whose extraordinary essays mix the revolutionary the revelatory and the esoteric scholem was a precocious teenager when he met benjamin who became his close friend and intellectual mentor his account of that relationship which was to remain crucial for both men is both a celebration of his friend s spellbinding genius and a lament for the personal and intellectual self destructiveness that culminated in benjamin s suicide in 1940 at once prickly and heartbroken argumentative and loving walter benjamin the story of a friendship is an absorbing memoir with the complication of character and motive of a novel as scholem revisits the passionate engagements over marxism and kabbala europe and palestine that he shared with benjamin it is as if he sought to summon up his lost friend s spirit again to have the last word in the argument that might have saved his life a sweeping jazz age tale of regret ambition and redemption inspired by true events including the great moonshine conspiracy trial of 1935 and Josephine Baker's 1925 Paris debut in La Revue Nègre 1924. May Marshall is determined to spend the dog days of summer in self-imposed exile at her father's farm in Keswick, Virginia, following a naive dalliance that led to heartbreak and her expulsion from Mary Baldwin College. May returns home with a shameful secret, only to find her father's orchard is now the site of a lucrative moonshining enterprise. Despite warnings from the one man she trusts, her childhood friend Byrd, she joins her father's illegal business. When authorities close in and her father Henry is arrested, May goes on the run. May arrives in New York City, determined to reinvent herself as May Valentine and succeed on her own terms, following her mother's footsteps as a costume designer. The Jazz Age city glitters with both opportunity and the darker temptations of cocaine and nightlife. From a start mending sheets at the famed Biltmore Hotel, May falls into a position designing costumes for a newly formed troupe of African American entertainers bound for Paris, reveling in her good fortune. May will do anything for the chance to go abroad, and the lines between right and wrong begin to blur when Byrd shows up in New York, intent upon taking May back home. She pushes him and her past away in Paris. May's run of luck comes to a screeching halt, spiraling her into darkness as she unravels a painful secret about her past. May must make a choice: surrender to failure and addiction or face the truth and make amends to those she has wronged. But first, she must find self-forgiveness before she can try to reclaim what her heart craves most.
