among the contemporary voices for the earth none resonates like that of noted cultural historian thomas berry his teaching and writings have inspired a generation s thinking about humankind s place in the earth community and the universe engendering widespread critical acclaim and a documentary film on his life and work this new collection of essays from various years and occasions expands and deepens ideas articulated in his earlier writings and also breaks new ground berry opens our eyes to the full dimensions of the ecological sense of not being able to cope deep universal values articulated by the apostle paul in his letter to the corinthian church must be claimed and internalized paul artfully guides those from this church in a complex setting by suggesting a more excellent way in which to live with complexity and challenge then and now we need to cultivate a thoughtful and credible faith in our mature years second we must sustain the well founded hope rooted in our faith in a loving god especially necessary in the evening of life in keeping with the teaching of jesus we should make unconditional love the central value in life it is possible to flourish in the evening of life undergirded by faith hope and love there are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them this book is different in two respects the first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all the second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others the messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging most of these writings were based on author michael j akers s teaching of adult bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the word of god
