inspired by marie corelli's book the life everlasting swami kriyananda direct disciple of the great world teacher paramhansa yogananda author of the classic autobiography of a yogi retells the dramatic story of a woman's discovery of her twin soul a discovery that propels her to undertake an arduous and perilous climb to the loftiest heights of spiritual awakening fueled by her love the heroine must overcome harrowing challenges before she realizes the goal of her yearning in union with god love perfected life divine is a timeless tale that carries the reader to the heart of the inner quest as swami kriyananda wrote in his introduction the life everlasting is the only novel paramhansa yogananda ever finished reading i can understand why he did so it has a deep spiritual potential i myself have enjoyed it and have read it many times i would not have undertaken this endeavor however if yogananda himself had not also addressed the subject of soul mates once so obliquely as to cry for clarification he said and to the best of my knowledge once only that everyone before attaining oneness with god must be united with his soul dual even if that dual is living on another planet and the union can be achieved only in vision the life everlasting exerts an undeniable spell it is not afraid to express openly the author's devotion to god without enclosing the reader in a narrow box of sectarianism i have rewritten this story because with all its faults i have always loved it i have cleared out massive amounts of excessive verbiage introduced a note of greater kindness cut out many pages as unnecessary and indeed deleterious to the lofty mood of the book i have rewritten the book also to make it correspond to my own beliefs i think as you read you will understand my reasons for the countless changes i have made and i conclude by saying i am happy with the results i hope you dear reader will be happy also

The Celestine Prophecy 1994-08

In the tradition of Siddhartha by Hermann Hesse comes a new spiritual novel that is a stunning feat of storytelling and imagination. A poet of the invisible world follows a boy named Nouri, born in thirteenth-century Persia with four ears instead of two. Orphaned as an infant, he is taken into a Sufi order where he meets an assortment of dervishes and is placed upon a path toward spiritual awakening. As he stumbles from one painful experience to the next, he grows into manhood. Each trial he endures shatters another obstacle within and leads Nouri on toward transcendence.
