the binary stars ti and silan are hosts for the kovalen planetary system the ruling monarchy of the system employs royal security to handle the problems of subversive or militant elements on the other inhabited planets in the system their methods are swift and ruthless their director mr detu controls the specially trained assassins that are at his disposal one of his agents jaan larin is among the best he has ever trained larin grew up a presumed orphan on the streets of kovalen s capital city his hardened mentality and incredible aptitudes make him an ideal recruit for the work that detu needs done larin now heavily experienced in the field of covert terminations is hand picked for a mission that is vital to the very existence of the the order the kovalen royal family that rules the system his mission is to return to his homeworld a place he has no memory of ever being on to conduct a search and recovery of stolen tech manuals for the most dangerous weapon of mass destruction ever developed and used the implosion warhead device can annihilate a whole planet reduce it to rubble a tattoo given to him at birth is his key to infiltrating the society of his homeworld the planet damirius is but a frontier planet with its own ideas of independence the ruling regime wants the matter of the stolen plans to be solved quietly the only clue that has been found has traced the stolen plans to damirius that clue is a woman's name Jaquin before setting off on his assignment. Larin's street-hewn suspicions lead him to the discovery that he is meant to accomplish his mission but not live to tell the tale. He is to be the pawn in a cover-up that will ensure the quiet solution that the royal family wants. His mind begins to bound from one vision to another in a manner he can't understand. All he can do is cling to the realization that he must survive. The visions he sees are that of a woman, a most beautiful and seductive woman that torments his very soul. The Damirian mysticism begins its work and Larin is driven by his passions. In what turns into the self-realizations and discovery of who he really is, the kidnapped heir to the throne of Damirius, spiritually bound together by the unexplainable phenomenon called the Wait, he and Jaquin are pulled together in an alliance to foil the plans of the Order Hunted and Haunted. Larin is first driven away from Jaquin into the frozen wild of Damirius. The struggle that ensues brings them together and sets a new course for the history of the entire Kovalen solar system.
