The Common Excuses of the Comfortable Compromiser 2012-12-06 comfortable compromisers block the way of anyone trying to change anything this is your field guide to their common excuses now you can recognise them understand them and overcome their opposition we live in the age of the compromiser political business and personal life all echo with the sound of compromise we know we need to change but we can't because we fear we have too much to lose this is a fundamental paradox facing human society comfortable compromisers often control the most significant power bases and since the current situation serves them well they have little interest or incentive to listen to arguments for change reading the common excuses of the comfortable compromiser you will find yourself identifying with both compromiser and advocate for change and gain a fresh insight into the need for innovative and pristine ideas on which to base our interactions as a society

Towards a Four-Tiered Model of Mediation 2023-02-13 underpinned by a hybrid methodology ranging from social sciences to human sciences this book parses mediation in four perspectives which stands as an unparalleled methodological approach so far mediation has long been tethered to piecemeal and haphazard approaches which have flatly failed to capture the gist of the uniqueness of this often poorly latched on and poorly understood dispute resolution mechanism this book argues that in order to fully grasp the richness of such dispute resolution mechanism mediation must be parsed in four tiers the first tier is the social dynamics of mediation the second tier is the cultural dynamics of mediation the third tier is the legal dynamics of mediation the fourth tier is the cross border and cross cultural dynamics of mediation taken together the four tiers that premise the four tiered model of mediation seek to unlock the finding in view of which law and social reality are tightly interlocked in this vein it is the underlying social reality of a given jurisdiction that should dictate the design of a pre suit court connected mandatory mediation with an easy opt out a central claim of both social dynamics of mediation the first tier of the four tiered model of mediation and legal dynamics of mediation the third tier of the four tiered model of mediation
