finding the voice inside invites women to name honor and explore their female experience as it differs from male experience doing this work in a group and hearing themselves and others read aloud what s been written women re awaken to what they don t always know that they know doing these exercises alone can continue the tradition of diary journal and letter writing that makes up our knowledge of women s lives throughout history in their effort to balance the male constructed view of the world women must first recreate the images symbols metaphors and truths of their own lives as women

Finding the Voice Inside 2002 emerging from darkness daring to take form and become something more than the other monsters stalk these pages shifting form in true monstrous fashion as they inhabit literature and film history and parallel communities modelled after our own they become enmeshed in popular music run rampant through cities take androgynous form to rally for their own identities their own futures and their own families and they hold up mirrors while we are caught shattering our sense of self both the past and the future are rich fodder for the evil that monsters do and from freak show to homunculus to serial killer to cyborg they remind us that they are never far from sight and that we cannot look away even if we wish to monstrosity from the inside out takes as the paradox that monsters are simultaneously impossible and very much a part of what it means to be human

Monstrosity from the Inside Out 2019-01-04 the southwestern indian polytechnic institute sipi is a selfdescribed national american indian community college in albuquerque new mexico sipi is operated by the bureau of indian affairs an agency of the u s government that has overseen and managed the relationship between the government and american indian tribes for almost two hundred years students at sipi are registered members of federally recognized american indian tribes from throughout the contiguous united states and alaska a fascinatingly hybridized institution sipi attempts to meld two conflicting institutional models a tribally controlled college or university and a bureau of indian affairs indian school with their unique corporate cultures rules and philosophies students attempt to cope with the institution and successfully make their way through it by using consciously or not an array of metaphorical representations of the school students who used discourses of discipline and control compared sipi to a boarding school a high school or a prison and focused on the school s restrictive policies drawn from the boarding school model those who used discourses of family and haven emphasized the emotional connection built between students and other members of the sipi community following the boarding school model speakers who used discourses of agency and selfreliance asserted that students can define their own experiences at sipi through a series of interviews this volume examines the ways in which students attempt to accommodate this variety of conflicts and presents an innovative and enlightening look into the contemporary state of american indian educational institutions

Inside the Eagle's Head 2010-10-14 the story of the mountains within is prototypical of the people who grew into first ever consciousness of their own identities from the obscurity of innumerable socio cultural microcosms that had existed at the subterranean level for centuries and millennia over the length and breadth of india before the independence the story moves from present to past to future with the main protagonist s grand daughter setting out to reconstruct the life story of her grand father she admires the story is contemporary and relevant to a whole lot of indians who finished their journeys of existence at the beginning of the new millennium as they sit back vacuous and dazed after the retirement they cannot help ruminating over the past vis à vis their own lives no matter how objective their self appraisal they cannot escape being dubbed a generation of ineffectual crusaders who fell from grace by succumbing to hypocrisies both personal and collective they cannot exonerate themselves from the stigma of making a mess of a newly liberated country through moral turpitude and lack of individual will they cannot face up to the younger generation of today and convince them they had no role to play in the fabrication of myths such mera bharat mahaan there are no nuremberg trials for the crimes we commit within our minds and souls however if history is continuity between the past and the present then the mountains within does leave some doors open for nuremberg trials of the mind and the souls for these indians

The Mountains Within 2021-11-22 this volume is product of the third online consciousness conference held at consciousnessonline.com in february and march 2011 chapters range over epistemological issues in the science and philosophy of perception what neuroscience can do to help us solve philosophical issues in the philosophy of mind what the true nature of black and white vision pain auditory olfactory or multi modal experiences are to higher order theories of consciousness synesthesia among others each chapter includes a target article commentaries and in most cases a final response from the author though wide ranging all of the papers aim to understand consciousness both from the inside as we experience it and from the outside as we encounter it in our science the online consciousness conference founded and organized by richard brown is dedicated to the rigorous study of consciousness and mind the goal is to bring philosophers scientists and interested lay persons together in an online venue to promote high level discussion and exchanging of views ideas and data related to the scientific and philosophical study of consciousness
