and internationally the author sets policies for inclusive schools in the broader contexts of current policies which aim to reduce poverty and social exclusion and the wider global background of the united nations drive to promote education for all the book draws a distinction between integration and inclusion and provides a critical analysis of the government s program of action and the revised national curriculum and their implications for schools pupils and families education reform has become part of a political imperative in a number of developed countries around the world the simultaneous movement to reform schooling and the administrative structures which deliver educational services therefore needs to be studied in order to lay bare its fundamental assumptions this movement has been labelled restructuring and reform although the words carry different meanings in different countries the authors question why this reconstruction occurred at the same time in different places what common themes are emerging in the restructuring movement and in the 1990s where will the movement lead schooling and what essential changes will it effect they explore these questions by examining developments in the usa canada the uk australia new zealand and japan professionalism is a key component of teaching during their training new teachers must swiftly begin to develop their professional identity they are required to meet and demonstrate professional behaviours outlined in part 2 of the teachers standards before they can be awarded qts becoming a professional requires critical reflection and a knowledge base that is complex this book helps trainee teachers to both meet the content of part 2 of the teachers standards and develop the professionalism that supports their identity as a teacher this new edition of education law and diversity provides extensive updated analysis from a legal perspective of how the education system responds to social diversity and how the relevant social and cultural rights of individuals and groups are affected it spans wide ranging areas of school provision including types of school including faith schools the school curriculum choice of school out of school settings and duties towards children with special needs and disabilities it gives extensive coverage to children s rights in the context of education and includes considerable new material on issues including relationships and sex education exclusion from school home education equal access counter extremism and academisation
