characters how to draw star wars characters step by step star wars drawing books seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject communications movies and television grade 2 university of linz department of english course drama and film language english abstract the american science fiction franchise star wars was created by george lucas and presented to the world in 1977 with the release of star wars episode iv a new hope unexpectedly the movie became the highest grossing film of all time until 1982 five out of the seven consecutive star wars movies excluding all other standalone star wars films are found on the top 100 list of highest grossing films of all time in canada and the usa despite the popularity of the franchise it is increasingly criticized for its portrayal of women in a stereotypical fashion critics claim that the story evolves predominantly around male heroes while objectifying women and giving them only a passive role in the plot to evaluate these claims this paper will introduce and compare the most important female characters and their roles throughout the saga the star wars movies are divided into three separate trilogies each of them having a main female character the paper will examine if the portrayal of each of those women in their respective trilogy depends on sexist stereotypes or if they are represented negatively in terms of power sexualization and characterization the three female heroines will be discussed in the chronological order of the canonical star wars timeline starting with star wars i the phantom menace and ending with star wars viii the last jedi due to the limitations of this paper the representation of the numerous other female characters throughout the movies will not be analyzed a pocket guide to the characters of the star wars trilogy the unforgettable characters of the star wars trilogy come to life again with full colour photographs from the original films essential background information on the characters who shaped the star wars galaxy seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject communications movies and television grade 2 university of linz department of english course drama and film language english abstract the american science fiction franchise star wars was created by george lucas and presented to the world in 1977 with the release of star wars episode iv a new hope un expectedly the movie became the highest grossing film of all time until 1982 five out of the seven consecutive star wars movies excluding all other standalone star wars films are found on the top 100 list of highest grossing films of all time in canada and the usa despite the popularity of the franchise it is increasingly criticized for its portrayal of women in a stereotypical fashion critics claim that the story evolves predominantly around male heroes while objectifying women and giving them only a passive role in the plot to evaluate these claims this paper will introduce and compare the most important female characters and their roles throughout the saga the star wars movies are divided into three separate trilogies each of them having a main female character the paper will examine if the portrayal of each of those women in their respective trilogy depends on sexist stereotypes or if they are represented negatively in terms of power sexualization and characterization the three female heroines will be discussed in the chronological order of the canonical star wars timeline starting with star wars i the phantom menace and ending with star wars viii the last jedi due to the limitations of this paper the representation of the numerous other female characters throughout the movies will not be analyzed
