Humean Moral Pluralism 2012-12-06 michael b gill offers a new account of humean moral pluralism the view that there are different moral reasons for action which are based on human sentiments he explores its historical origins and argues that it offers the most compelling view of our moral experience together pluralism and humeanism make a philosophically powerful couple

Fibrous Composites in Structural Design 2015-04-23 the fourth conference on fibrous composites in structural design was a successor to the first to third conferences on fibrous composites in flight vehicle design sponsored by the air force first and second conferences september 1973 and may 1974 and by nasa third conference november 1975 which were aimed at focusing national attention on flight vehicle applications of a new class of fiber reinforced materials the advanced composites which afforded weight savings and other advantages which had not been previously available the fourth conference held at san diego california 14 17 november 1978 was the first of these conferences to be jointly sponsored by the army navy and air force together with nasa as well as being the first to give attention to non aerospace applications of fiber reinforced composites while the design technology for aerospace applications has reached a state of relative maturity other areas of application such as military bridging flywheel energy storage systems ship and surface vessel components and ground vehicle components are in an early stage of development and it was an important objective to pinpoint where careful attention to structural design was needed in such applications to achieve maximum structural performance payoff together with a high level of reliability and attractive economics
