mmmm good this slogan became very popular when it was used by the makers of campbell's soup although campbell's soup and other favorite treats are good and believed to bring healing to the body this satisfaction is only temporary david extended an invitation to us in psalm 34 he wants us to taste and see that god is good there are four major tastes that have been identified bitter sour salty and sweet each taste is necessary for the right amount of nutrients to be received to ensure proper growth and development god has designed a meal plan unique to each person and just like our natural diet in which each taste is necessary our spiritual meal plan is a delicate balance of sweet sour salty and bitter he knows that just as each is needed for the physical body they are all necessary for the spiritual body he has invited us to taste and see that he is good this book offers a look at how different people in the bible experienced the different tastes and how we can apply these references to our lives
