reading of the account is long overdue in maya studies and will forever change how this seminal text is understood and used for generations scholars used and misused the account as the sole eyewitness insight into an ancient civilization it is credited to the sixteenth century spanish franciscan monastic inquisitor and bishop diego de landa whose legacy is complex and contested his extensive writings on maya culture and history were lost in the seventeenth century save for the fragment that is the account discovered in the nineteenth century and accorded near biblical 13th century the horizons of western christians extended no further than the principalities of what is now european russia and the islamic powers of the near east beyond lay a world of which they had only the haziest impressions the belief that christian communities were to be found here was nurtured in the 12th century by the growth of the legend of prester john but otherwise asia was peopled in the western imagination by monstrous races borrowed from the works of late antiquity the rise of the mongol empire however and the mongol devastation of hungary and poland in 1241 brought the west into much closer contact with inner asia embassies were being exchanged with the mongols from 1245 italian merchants began to profit from the commercial opportunities offered by the union of much of asia under a single power and
