mediterranean archaeology and archaeometry maa is double blind peer reviewed and open access journal founded by prof ioannis liritzis with a long lasting constant and regular frequency since 2001 it was hosted since 2001 by the university of the aegean greece and from november 2020 summer 2023 hosted by the henan university china since its foundation in 1988 mediterranean archaeology issn 1030 8482 has succeeded not only in providing a much needed medium through which archaeologists in australasia report on their research and field work in the mediterranean region but also in establishing itself as a journal of international import the journal publishes new contributions not short notes or purely descriptive reports or artefact studies on the archaeology of the mediterranean region or on regions that border on the mediterranean and which have had an impact on the mediterranean sea the archaeological study of post 1500 contexts is not new to the mediterranean region but unlike other areas of the world especially north america the growth of a scholarly community of archaeologists dedicated to investigating the last five centuries there has been slow and piecemeal it presents analyses of how people have interacted with soils and vegetation and revisits the key questions of human culpability in the creation of so called degraded landscapes in the mediterranean this book offers a comprehensive introduction to the archaeology of mediterranean prehistory and an essential reference to the most recent research and fieldwork the archaeology of mediterranean prehistory
