the midst of war to bring essential veterinary services to an agrarian society that depends day in and day out on the well being and productivity of its animals but which because of decades of war and the disintegration of civil society had no reliable access to even the most basic animal health care the book describes how in the face of many obstacles a dedicated group of afghan and expatriate veterinarians working for a small nongovernmental organization ngo in kabul was able to create a national network of over 400 veterinary field units staffed by over 600 veterinary paraprofessionals these units were selected by their communities and then trained and outfitted by the ngo so that nearly every district in the country
