Report 1880 Buck Steichen is doing his best to endure the tribulations that accompany living in rural Minnesota during a time of drought, insect infestations, and other hardships. Buck eventually finds happiness with Ellie Eberling, and in July 1874 he marries her. Purchases farmland and builds a house. It seems Buck has realized the American dream, or so he thinks. Rough on Rats is an epic tale of a family's struggles in rural Minnesota as they do everything in their power to survive amid trying times. The book captures your attention immediately and holds your interest throughout, wanting to find out what happens next to Buck. I think we can all relate to those who try so hard only to be beaten down again and again. Vicky Anderson, Otter Tail County Historical Society. I really enjoyed it. I actually found it easy and fast to read. I couldn't wait to find out what was going to happen next. Mary Pfeffer, East Otter Tail County Museum.

Appendix to the Journals of the Senate and Assembly ... of the Legislature of the State of California ... 1881 billed in early issues as a practical journal of industrial progress, this monthly covers a broad range of topics in engineering, manufacturing, mechanics, architecture, building, etc. Later issues say it is devoted to the advancement and diffusion of practical knowledge.

Transactions of the California State Agricultural Society 1883 now is a time of exciting new developments for live animal power as the numbers of adherents to this way of life grow. Ecologically minded farmers in their fields are developing efficient horse-drawn systems and equipment. Manufacturers in small shops all across North America and Europe are coming forth with new innovations in ground-drive technology that have us poised on the cusp of another agricultural revolution with working horses, mules, donkeys, and oxen at the heart of it. Publisher.

The Journal of the Senate During the ... Session of the Legislature of the State of California 1881 Stegner's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel of personal historical and geographic discovery confined to a wheelchair, retired historian Lyman Ward sets out to write his grandparents' remarkable story, chronicling their days spent carving civilization into the surface of America's western frontier. But his research reveals even more about his own life than he's willing to admit. What emerges is an enthralling portrait of four generations in the life of an American family. Cause for celebration: a superb novel with an amplitude of scale and richness of detail altogether uncommon in contemporary fiction. The Atlantic Monthly brilliant two stories past and present merge to produce what important fiction must: a sense of the enchantment of life. Los Angeles Times.
