proverbial like principles on the subject of prayer so that the reader can first understand that great lessons come from life's modest experiences and secondly understand the devotion the feeling the tone and the intent of our prayer is as meaningful as the prayer itself mountaintop of divine revelation a pearl in the gold of the bible he asserts that the lord offers this prayer in the presence of his disciples so that those who hear it and later those who read it might be filled with joy this prayer is especially significant because jesus utters it the night before his crucifixion which is the climax of his earthly work burgess thus asks his readers if the words of a dying man are much to be regarded how much more of a dying christ in this light
