New Collecting: Exhibiting and Audiences after New Media Art

2016-04-29

the collections of museums galleries and online art organisations are increasingly broadening to include more new media art because new media is used as a means of documenting archiving and distributing art and because new media art might be interactive with its audiences this highlights the new kinds of relationships that might occur between audiences as viewers participants selectors taggers or taxonomisers new media art presents many challenges to the curator and collector but there is very little published analytical material available to help meet those challenges this book fills that gap drawing from the editor s extensive research and the authors expertise in the field the book provides clear navigation through a disparate arena the authors offer examples from a wide geographical reach including the uk north america and asia and integrate the consideration of audience response into all aspects of their work the book will be essential reading for those studying or practicing in new media curating or museums and galleries

Rethinking Curating

redefining curatorial practice for those working with new kinds of art as curator steve dietz has observed new media art is like contemporary art but different new media art involves interactivity networks and computation and is often about process rather than objects new media artworks are difficult to classify according to the traditional art museum categories determined by medium geography and chronology and present the curator with novel challenges involving interpretation exhibition and dissemination this book views these challenges as opportunities to rethink curatorial practice it helps curators of new media art develop a set of flexible tools for working in this fast moving field and it offers useful lessons from curators and artists for those working in such other areas of art as distributive and participatory systems the authors both of whom have extensive experience as curators offer numerous examples of artworks and exhibitions to illustrate how the roles of curators and audiences can be redefined in light of new media art s characteristics rethinking curating offers curators a route through the hype around platforms and autonomous zones by following the lead of current artists practice

After Rabin

the history of art in israel is a complex one determined by numerous factors relating to language culture religion and politics this handsome book portrays the vitality and innovation that characterize the work of 36 artists who currently live in israel it seeks to capture the flavor of a turbulent splintered time in israeli society since the death of prime minister yitzhak rabin in 1995 by examining the work of a stylistically and ideologically diverse group of artists despite the plurality of styles these remarkable artists share a common sensibility political and social references may be indirect or explicit but this is an art that projects an inner turmoil without nostalgia or comfort leading israeli art cultural and social critics contribute essays that provide new perspectives into the national social existential and aesthetic concerns of contemporary israeli artists

Art after the Hipster

this book examines the complexities of the hipster through the lens of art history and cultural theory from charles baudelaire s flâneur to the contemporary creative borne from creative industries policies it claims that the recent ubiquity of hipster culture has led many artists to confront their own significance responding to the mass artification of contemporary life by de emphasising the formal and textual deconstructions so central to the legacies of modern and postmodern art in the era of creative digital technologies long held characteristics of art such as individual expression innovation and alternative lifestyle are now features of a flooded and fast paced global marketplace against the idea that artists like hipsters are the foot soldiers of capitalism the institutionalized networks that make up the contemporary art world are working to portray a view of art that is less a discerning exercise in innovative form making than a social platform a forum for populist aesthetic pleasures or socio political causes it is in this sense that the concept of the hipster is caught up in age old debates about the relation between ethics and aesthetics examined here in terms of the dynamics of global contemporary art

this book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community our understanding in the west of the eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the muslims is alarmingly low the book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the muslim and the eastern mind there are over 1.3 billion muslims in the world it would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists it is extremely tragic that it took the iranian hostage crisis to teach us about shia islam and 9/11 to teach us about wahabi islam properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional for the muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of islam beyond the boundaries of ritual islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual islam to inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives the book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges we share common dreams aspirations and challenges we share a common globe and a common destiny the author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding

Socially Engaged Art after Socialism

the classic and provocative account of how art changed irrevocably with pop art and why traditional aesthetics can't make sense of contemporary art a classic of art criticism and philosophy after the end of art continues to generate heated debate for its radical and famous assertion that art ended in the 1960s arthur danto a philosopher who was also one of the leading art critics of his time argues that traditional notions of aesthetics no longer apply to contemporary art and that we need a philosophy of art criticism that can deal with perhaps the most perplexing feature of current art that everything is possible an insightful and entertaining exploration of art's most important aesthetic and philosophical issues conducted by an acute observer of contemporary art after the end of art argues that with the eclipse of abstract expressionism art deviated irrevocably from the narrative course that vasari helped define for it in the
