Peer-assisted Learning 2015-09-07

Peer-assisted learning (PAL) is a form of collaborative learning where students help each other learn. It is based on the idea that students learn best when they are actively engaged in the learning process and when they are able to help others. PAL can be used in a variety of ways, including one-to-one tutoring, small group work, and peer review. It is a powerful tool for improving student learning and understanding.
