devotional classic periya puranam or the great epic by sekkizhaar is the saga of the sixty three nayanmars or servitors of the lord who not only lived for him on the other hand adored him in delightfully distinct ways lord shiva whom these saiva siddhantins worshiped is not a sectarian deity but the supreme creator preserver and destroyer of the universe who comes in human form from time to time and plays with these servitors when their devotion gets incandescent these nayanmars consists of devoted men and women of all ages and range from tribal hunters to emperors of vast domains caste community wealth and status do not count with them even as they do not with the lord the trials and tribulations they cheerfully undergo and the incredible sacrifices they make for the lord s sake take our breath away to pursue their stories is to inhale the air of sanctity and blessedness sri g vanmikanathan who has rendered the highlights of the original epic from tamil to english with a racy running commentary is an experienced litterateur who has a number of translation of the tamil sthala purana of tiruvannamalai composed in the 17th century by saiva ellappa navalar with special reference to the arunachala mahatmya a section of the sanskrit skanda purana which is one of its major sources translation of tamil saivite hagiography kanda purana was written by sri kacchiyappa shivachariyar narrating the exploits of lord muruga this book is a prose summary of the text written in a lucid language with all the legends of muruqa narrated garuda purana is one of the most sacred mahapuranas for the devout hindus it gains importance because of a single factor it is the only purana which gives a detailed description of the postmortem conditions and rituals as believed by this faith however it is a belief as spread by the dogmatic priestly class the fact is that the garuda purana contains many more details other than these it reveals the consequences of an action in a very graphic and logical way while most of the puranas tell one what to do it also tells us what one should not do tiruvilayadal purana is reputed to be one of the 18 thalapuranas yet it is also revered as one of the mahapuranas periyapurana the right eye puranas are almost like an encyclopaedia listing the human achievements in this part of the world till the time they were edited or compiled in every cycle of time the master editor called veda vyas emerges to edit vet and compile these records their significance is enormous even in the present as they give a peep into the distant past of hindus when the world was evolving and the psyche of the race was being formed these puranas record the arguments that make us to decide as to what is holy and what is vile what is good and what is bad by going through them we can compare our present day jurisprudence vis a vis the ancient norms apart from that they are a huge store house of information conceiving every subject under the sun it is with the view of unearthing these gems that the present series of the puranas has been planned
