Paypal in 30 Pages or Less 2004 this book resulted from a desire to understand the role of pamphlets in the political life of that most curious early modern state the dutch republic the virtues of abundance and occasional liveliness have made little blue books as they were called a favorite historical source that is why i came to study them in the first place i but the more i dug into pamphlets for this fact or that the more questions i had about their 2 contemporary purpose and role who wrote pamphlets and why for whom were they intended how and by whom were pamphlets brought to press and distributed and what does this reveal why did their number increase so greatly who read them how were pamphlets different from other media in short i began to view pamphlets not as repositories of historical facts but as a historical phenomenon in their own right 3 i have looked for answers to these questions in governmental and church records private letters publishing records and related materials about printers booksellers and pamphleteers and of course in pamphlets themselves like so many other students of the early press and its products i discovered only scattered incomplete images of actual conditions such as the readership or popularity of pamphlets on the other hand i found much material which reflected what people believed about little books

Annual Report 1894 your first page is unlike any other craft book on writing it is based on the premise that practically everything that can go right or wrong in a work of fiction or memoir goes wrong or right on the first page those first 300 or so words function like canaries in coal mines forecasting success or predicting trouble they establish the crucial bond between writer and reader setting them off together on a path toward the heart or climax of a story or they fail to do so from first pages we stand to learn most of what we need to know to succeed as authors this new workshop and classroom edition of your first page has been revised to better fit the needs of creative writing classrooms and workshops
