widely known for her much admired novels including The Heat of the Day, The House in Paris and The Death of the Heart, Elizabeth Bowen established herself in the front rank of the century's writers equally through her short fiction. This collection brings together seventy-nine magnificent stories written over the course of four decades, vividly featuring scenes of bomb-scarred London during the Blitz, frustrated lovers, acutely observed children, and even vengeful ghosts. These stories reinforce Bowen's reputation as an artist whose finely chiseled narratives, rich in imagination, psychological insight, and craft, transcend their time and place.

The Collected Stories of Hortense Calisher

Six decades of fascinating stories from the legendary colossus of science fiction and creator of 2001: A Space Odyssey gathered in one compendium, The New Yorker Arthur C. Clarke along with H. G. Wells, Isaac Asimov, and Robert A. Heinlein was a definitive voice in twentieth-century science fiction. A prophetic thinker, undersea explorer, and one of the true geniuses of our time, Clarke not only won the highest science fiction honors, the Nebula and Hugo Awards, but also received nominations for an Academy Award and the Nobel Peace Prize and was knighted for his services to literature. Ray Bradbury now more than one hundred works of the sci-fi master's short fiction are available in the single author collection of the decade. Booklist starred review. This definitive edition includes early work such as Rescue Party and The Lion of Comarre, classics like The Nine Billion Names of God and The Sentinel, which was the kernel of the later novel and movie 2001: A Space Odyssey, and later works including A Meeting with Medusa and The Hammer of God, encapsulating one of the great science fiction careers of all time. This immense volume displays the author's fertile imagination and irrepressible enthusiasm for both good storytelling and impeccable science. Library Journal, one of the most astounding imaginations ever encountered in print, The New York Times as his collected stories helps to demonstrate there has been no popular writer since the days of C. S. Lewis and Charles Williams whose disposition is more nakedly apocalyptic who takes greater pleasure in cradling eternity in the palm of his hand. The Guardian.
