Constructing Transgressive Sexuality in Screenwriting 2017-10-09

this book approaches the construction of complex and transgressive pervert characters in mainstream not art adult oriented not pornographic cinema it deconstructs an episteme on which to base the construction of characters in screenplays in a way that acknowledges how semiotic elements of characterisation intersect in addition it provides an extended re phrasing of the notion of the pervert as feiticiero a newly coined construct that might serve as an underpinning for complex sexual filmic characters that are both entertaining and challenging to audiences this re phrasing speaks to both an existential phenomenological conception of personhood and to the scholarly tradition of the linguistic turn of continental philosophers such as foucault and lacan who represent language not primarily as describing the world but as constructing it the result is an original and interdisciplinary volume that is brought to coherence through a queer post humanist lens
