with simplicity eloquence and power thomas merton explores the mystery of the risen christ previously unpublished this piece captures both the author s energy and his vision of an authentic christianity it is pointless to view the resurrection as a doctrine to prove or a problem to solve it is the life and action of christ alive in us we are a pilgrim people our journey into the mystery of creation is in pursuit of real freedom we are guided by the law of love and moved by the spirit of god to serve our fellow man in response to the risen christ alive in us from back cover richard sheffield s preaching is stimulating and unique whenever i am burdened or under pressure his pithy insights into the gospel of our lord refresh my spirit they sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems he is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express he handles life s misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience this comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen under his gentle manner there is the fire of peter thomas and st paul all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction bryant kirkland minister emeritus fifth avenue presbyterian church new york new york at first glance the easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for lent but richard sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for easter day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a christian the lord is risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have how we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in lent as well as easter with hope hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter rev sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about god into the bad news about us and it shows he writes belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith or figuring out the best way to keep god happy long enough to get into heaven belief is living life now certain of the love of god in jesus christ for you and me living life unafraid even of death itself richard l sheffield is senior pastor of market street presbyterian church lima ohio he holds a component of the catholic faith a portrait of jesus presents our savior in a way that may not be obvious to the casual reader the bible is an inspired book dealing with a real world with spiritual overtones when reading the new testament it may not be so obvious that jesus is basically revealing something about the catholic faith which is needed in order for the reader to grow in the faith however if jesus is god and therefore allknowing he is not trying to add to his personal knowledge but presenting himself so as to be a model for how a person ought to approach the faith he also reveals his spiritual self as related to the father and the holy spirit defense of the faith gives the faithful an opportunity to answer questions often asked by the unbeliever included are brief
