le défi du patrimoine immatériel est de capturer l'essence du spectacle l'idée de capture a cela d'intéressant qu'elle suppose que les professionnels impliqués dans la sibmas soient comme des chasseurs sur la piste de toutes sortes de façons afin de coincer et de recueillir un petit quelque chose d'éphémère qui en vaut la peine et qui nous en apprend sur nous mêmes et sur notre monde certains chasseurs se servent des bases de données d'autres des écrits ou des images mais tous partagent un même objectif ne pas laisser se perdre un moment spécial magique que seule la vie du spectacle peut générer the challenge of intangible heritage is to capture the essence of performance the idea of capturing is interesting as it implies that the professionals involved in sibmas are on a hunt a hunt in a number of different ways to pin down and preserve something ephemeral and something worth preserving something that tells us more about ourselves and the world we live in some hunters use the database some the written word some the camera but all share a common goal not to let go of a particular moment a magic moment that only the live event can create this dissertation reevaluates the tradition of jesus sayings in the apostolic fathers in light of the growing recognition of the impact of orality upon early christianity and its writings at the beginning of the last century it was common to hold that the apostolic fathers made wide use of the canonical gospels while a number of studies have since called this view into question many of them simply replace the theory of dependence upon canonical gospels with one of dependence upon other written sources no full scale study of jesus tradition in the apostolic fathers has been published which takes into account the last four decades of new research into oral tradition in the wake of the pioneering work of milman parry and albert lord based on this new research the present dissertation advances the thesis that an oral traditional source best explains the form and content of the explicit appeals to jesus tradition in the apostolic fathers that predate 2 clement in the course of the discussion attention is drawn to the ways in which the jesus tradition in the apostolic fathers informs our understanding of the use of oral tradition in christian antiquity reframing drag provides a critical survey of french and anglo american queer and feminist theorizations of drag performance placing these approaches in a dialogue with contemporary drag practice and the representation of drag in three literary texts challenging pervasive assumptions circulating in existing queer and feminist analyses of drag performance the author identifies and questions three recurring ideas which have shaped the landscape of drag research the argument that drag performances either uphold or subvert oppressive gender norms the assumption that drag involves performing as the opposite sex and the belief that drag can shed light on gender performativity informed by a range of gender and queer theory this work contends that an intersectional transfeminist approach to drag performance can provide richer more nuanced understandings of drag and unlike the opposite sex narrative acknowledges the gender diversity at work in current drag scenes
