nike manchester united harry potter and google are known and recognized by millions of people worldwide as the market economy spreads across the world brands are becoming ever more prevalent the apple brand has been valued at 98 billion more than the gdp of slovakia every day we re exposed to more than 3500 brand messages and even though people are increasingly brand aware and brand sceptical they are nevertheless seduced by brands we may reject the whole brand system but we still wouldn t be parted from our apple macs brands are impossible to escape in this very short introduction robert jones discusses the rising omnipresence of brands and analyses how they work their magic he considers the incredible potency of brands as a commercial social and cultural force and looks at the many different kinds of brands that exist from products services and artistic properties to companies charities sports clubs and political parties defining what we mean by the word brand he explores both the positive and negative aspects of brands finally jones considers the business of branding and asks whether the idea of brands and branding is starting to decline or whether it has a long future
