a ground breaking and intensely revealing examination of the life of the 20th century's most iconic writer Ernest Hemingway was an involuntary chameleon who would shift seamlessly from a self-cultivated image of heroic aesthetic radical and existential non-conformist to a figure made up at various points of selfishness hypocrisy self-delusion narcissism and arbitrary vindictiveness Richard Bradford shows that Hemingway's work is by parts erratic and unique because it was tied into these unpredictable bizarre features of his personality impressionism and subjectivity always play some part in the making of literary works some authors try to subdue them while others treat them as the essentials of creativity but they endure as a ubiquitous element of all literature they are the writer's private signature their authorial fingerprint in this new biography which includes previously unpublished letters from the Hemingway archives Richard Bradford reveals how Hemingway all but erased his own existence through a lifetime of invention and delusion and provides the reader with a completely new understanding of the Hemingway oeuvre
