Department of Homeland Security Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2007: Justifications (p. 1425-2933) 2006 income inequality is a serious problem confronting not only the developed world but also developing countries recently financialization has been one of the culprits identified in literature as one of the cause of income inequality this book offers the only detailed presentation of the how financialization aided the spread of income inequality in organization of islamic cooperation oic countries finance has taking a center stage in the affairs of most developing economies surpassing the real sector of the economy the result is the creation of an indebted society in which people are comfortable with financing their financial needs through credit this creates a debt laden society that is trapped in the cycle of debt this book represents a comprehensive and indispensable source for students practitioners and the general public at large it presents data which shows the buildup of debt and the rising income inequality in muslim countries it includes discussion of the rise in rentier income financialization of everyday life decline in physical capital accumulation and deregulation of the financial sector the book therefore proffers solutions on how muslim countries can come out of the present economic problem facing them the promotion and adoption of islamic principles which promotes risk sharing based contracts as against debt based transaction is the way to go when financial contracts are based on the principles of risk sharing any gains from economic activities get to be shared equitably hence not only capital owners get to enjoy the benefit from the income derived from investments but rather all parties that partake in the contract distinguished by its clarity and readability as it is written in a very easy to understand language it is an important reference work for any concerned individual interested on the recent causes of income inequality in muslim world

Department of Homeland Security Appropriations for 2007 2006 the increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations this unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the organization of islamic cooperation oic formerly the organization of the islamic conference in particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant oic law and comparable un norms in furtherance of un global counter terrorism strategy goals furthermore it explores two common mis assumptions regarding the oic namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within oic law where significant normative tensions are discerned between oic law and un law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the oic s islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making this monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and islamic law norms from the foreword by professor ben saul the university of sydney dr samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the oic islamic law international law and counter terrorism it fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 the scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse dr samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life
