be equipped to prepare and deliver engaging biblical and effective topical sermons sooner or later every preacher will come upon a situation where they need to preach a topical sermon yet few are taught to preach topically even preachers who are gifted in expositing the scriptures may struggle to deliver a topical sermon that is engaging culturally relevant and true to the biblical text worse many pastors worry these messages undermine confidence in the bible or its authority leading to a human centered rather than a god focused sermon but that doesn't have to be the case in topical preaching in a complex world sam chan and malcolm gill answer these objections and chart a path for how preachers can deliver faithful and effective topical messages first they address the biblical theological and cultural reasons pastors should add topical sermons to their preaching repertoire then they introduce a straightforward four fold approach for preaching a topical message and answer important questions like these how do you approach a topic with the proper interpretative lens how can you speak to two or more audiences with the same sermon what should you consider theologically culturally and pastorally in your preparation how do you trace the topic back to christ how can you better connect with your audience best of all they help readers craft a message that says something people truly need and want to hear filled with wit humor and wisdom from decades of preaching this book will equip preachers pastors ministry leaders and students to preach relevant biblical and engaging topical sermons author sam chan says just over a decade ago i was asked by an organization to speak at their end of year dinner they wanted me to address the topic of being a christian single but i had no idea how to prepare and deliver a topical talk when the night arrived i preached an old three point expository sermon and merely changed the ending to include some application on singleness at best i got some polite comments afterwards at worst people's looks indicated that my biblical talk had little relevance for them they could not have been less fooled by my disingenuous workaround i went home vowing never to repeat that poor performance i felt like the unfaithful servant who had not adequately used what talents had been given to him as a result i have dedicated the last decade of my preaching ministry to overcoming and mastering the art of topical preaching this book is a product of that journey

make both the questions and the answers new in part 1 of the book the bedrock of preaching capon discusses how essential it is to have a passion for the passion to believe passionately in the good news of salvation in christ how to overcome the stumbling blocks to genuinely accepting grace and how to relinquish a false sense of control over our salvation this part of the book also has important things to say to those of us who listen to sermons and who look to the pulpit for words of grace and hope that are truly meaningful to our lives today in part 2 the practice of preaching capon concentrates on the mechanics of preaching in anything but a mechanical way he begins by discussing the ingredients of preaching emphasizing the importance of not just reading but really hearing the word in the original greek and hebrew and offers some pointed comments on the common lectionary he then goes on to illustrate how to preach effectively from notes giving specific day by day suggestions for preparation he also shows using the full text of one of his sermons as an example how to preach from a more fully written manuscript and explains how to move from first notes to final notes for a sermon again using some of his own notes as an example in capon s creative hands these instructions are not just a nuts and bolts exercise they are lively challenging lessons in preaching that for all their practical advice never lose touch with the center of preaching and belief the astonishing grace of jesus christ
