1920 the eighteenth amendment took effect in the united states prohibiting the manufacture sale use or importation of alcoholic beverages many thought this action would bring peace and tranquility to the country but that was not the case instead the prohibition experiment failed dismally in the united states and nowhere worse than in michigan the state s proximity to canada where large amounts of liquor were manufactured made it a major center for the smuggling and sale of illegal alcohol although federal state and local law enforcement agencies attempted to stop the flow of liquor into michigan an astounding 75 percent of all illegal liquor brought into the united states was transported across the detroit river from canada philip p mason regales readers with stories of the bungled efforts by officials at every
