van der zee re creates the life story of fritz pfeffer a german born jewish dentist who under the name of dussel which means day dreamer or even dullard prominently appears in the diary of anne frank in het achterhuis anne frank describes this man who was her roommate in hiding for almost two years as a narrow minded irritating and gloomy figure this material including pfeffer s last letter to kaletta his lover dated 15 november 1942 came into the hands of the well known dutch historian nanda van der zee with the help of pfeffer s son who gave her a wealth of unpublished photographs as well as friends and acquaintances of kaletta and pfeffer from germany holland belgium and south africa and the pfeffer archives of the anne frank foundation she re created the story of his life this book which was published in the netherlands in 1990 is the merit of nanda van der zee that she corrects the image that anne frank gave of pfeffer and in essence rehabilitates him he emerges as an affectionate man and a caring warm lover this new image proves to be a correction to the diary and may alter some of the hagiography surrounding anne frank the testimony this book provides will penetrate deeper than a more empirical historical account it is a valuable supplement to the diary the most significant value however lies in the author s underlying message that war has a total senseless and destructive effect on everybody
