globe and mail cooper posey does a masterful job of recreating the style of doyle in this vivid exciting tale romantic times magazine chronicles of the lost years is everything you expect from a sherlock holmes tale twists and turns brilliant reasoning tenacious villains i have been a holmes fan for many years so i enjoyed this a great deal a great deal of fun DODOOD OF THE LINE northland area of the auckland province attracted men from all ranks of society and from many lands to dig for kauri gum amongst such a group and against the unique gumlands landscape william satchell set his story of fidelity and betrayal this historical romance embodies family memoirs and chronicles the journeys of the konrad family through the life of angele her love for singing classical numbers makes the novel a delightful find for any reader who recognizes the arias named or is curious about what a professional singing career entails in addition the detailed portrayals of various cultural markers or religious denominations such as the mennonites with their languages customary habits and tastes and common personality traits are intriguing lastly the novel also endeavours to capture the reality of grief over the death of a loved one causing the reader to meditate on how one mourns over time and how one rises from life altering challenges Image: Interest the contract the contract the political zionist movement and egyptian rulers completely uprooted the country sthriving jewish community a goal the pharaohs tried to realize as early as 3500 years ago mostly comprised of descendants of sephardim from the iberian peninsula the world's oldest jewish community totaled 85 000 members in 1948 no more than 100 to 200 jews live in egypt today this book tells the story of egypt s jewish history from biblical times to 1967 the year of one of the last major jewish emigration waves from egypt it highlights the first exodus in ca 1500 bce and the second exodus which was triggered by the foundation of the state of israel and three successive wars in 1948 1956 and 1967 throughout the narrative it becomes evident that the jewish community consistently was subject to the arbitrary will of egyptian rulers starting in 1948 members of this community were forced to leave the country without any of their belongings on short notice like other jews from the arab world egyptian jews were not zionists in the eurocentric ashkenazi sense their arrival in israel was met with prejudice and disdain even though they were discriminated against in matters of housing and education they still managed to integrate well into israeli society and
