Cambridge English Scale (CES) is a measure of English language proficiency. It is based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and is used to assess the English language skills of students. The CES is a continuous scale ranging from 100 to 180, with 100 representing the level of a beginner and 180 representing the level of a proficient user. The CES is used to assess the English language skills of students in a variety of contexts, including academic, professional, and social. The CES is a reliable and valid measure of English language proficiency and is widely used by universities, employers, and other organizations.
