The Ladies' Book of Etiquette, and Manual of Politeness 2019-08-19 the gentlemen s book of etiquette the manual of politeness by cecil b hartley man was not intended to live like a bear or a hermit apart from others of his own nature and philosophy and reason will each agree with me that man was born for sociability and finds his true delight in society society is a word capable of many meanings and used here in each and all of them society par excellence the world at large the little clique to which he is bound by early ties the companionship of friends or relatives even society tete a tete with one dear sympathizing soul are pleasant states for a man to be in taking the word in its most extended view it is the world but in the light we wish to impress in our book it is the smaller world of the changing pleasant intercourse of each city or town in which our reader may chance to abide this society composed as it is of many varying natures and elements where each individual must submit to merge his own identity into the universal whole which makes the word and state is divided and subdivided into various cliques and has a pastime for every disposition grave or gay and with each division rises up a new set of forms and ceremonies to be observed if you wish to glide down the current of polite life smoothly and pleasantly the young man who makes his first entrance into the world of society should know how to choose his friends and next how to conduct himself towards them experience is of course the best guide but at first starting this must come second hand from an older friend or from books a judicious friend is the best guide but how is the young man to know whom to choose when at home this friend is easily selected but in this country where each bird leaves the parent nest as soon as his wings will bear him safely up there are but few who stay amongst the friends at home

The Gentlemen's Book of Etiquette 2017-11-02 in preparing a book of etiquette for ladies i would lay down as the first rule do unto others as you would others should do to you you can never be rude if you bear the rule always in mind for what lady likes to be treated rudely true christian politeness will always be the result of an unselfish regard for the feelings of others and though you may err in the ceremonious points of etiquette you will never be impolite politeness founded upon such a rule becomes the expression in graceful manner of social virtues the spirit of politeness consists in a certain attention to forms and ceremonies which are meant both to please others and ourselves and to make others pleased with us a still clearer definition may be given by saying that politeness is goodness of heart put into daily practice there can be no true politeness without kindness purity singleness of heart and sensibility many believe that politeness is but a mask worn in the world to conceal bad passions and impulses and to make a show of possessing virtues not really existing in the heart thus that politeness is merely hypocrisy and dissimulation do not believe this be certain that those who profess such a doctrine are practising themselves the deceit they condemn so much such people scout politeness because to be truly a lady one must carry the principles into every circumstance of life into the family circle the most intimate friendship and never forget to extend the gentle courtesies of life to every one this they find too much trouble and so deride the idea of being polite and call it deceitfulness true politeness is the language of a good heart and those possessing that heart will never under any circumstances be rude they may not enter a crowded saloon gracefully they may be entirely ignorant of the forms of good society they may be awkward at table ungrammatical in speech but they will never be heard speaking so as to wound the feelings of another they will never be seen making others uncomfortable by seeking solely for their own personal convenience they will always endeavor to set every one around them at ease they will be self sacrificing friendly unselfish truly in word and deed polite give to such a woman the knowledge of the forms and customs of society teach her how best to show the gentle courtesies of life and you have a lady created by god only indebted for the outward polish to the world it is true that society demands this same unselfishness and courtesy but when there is no heart in the work the time is frittered away on the mere ceremonies forms of etiquette and customs of society and this politeness seeks only its own ends to be known as courteous spoken of as lady like and not beloved as unselfish and womanly etiquette exists in some form in all countries has existed and will exist in all ages from the rudest savage who dares not approach his ignorant barbarous ruler without certain forms and ceremonies to the most polished courts in europe or the home circles of america etiquette reigns true politeness will be found its basis in the human heart the same in all these varied scenes and situations but the outward forms of etiquette will vary everywhere even in the same scene time will alter every form and render the exquisite polish of last year obsolete rudeness next year politeness being based upon real kindness of heart cannot exist where there is selfishness or brutality to warp its growth 5 it is founded upon love of the neighbor and a desire to be beloved and to show love thus where such pure noble feelings do not exist the mere forms of politeness become hypocrisy and deceit rudeness will repel where courtesy would attract friends
