hodgson's new translation is an essential resource for the English reader and provides a fascinating account of the world as it was conceived by one of history's most influential philosophers. The editorial introduction surveys the history of the texts and provides an analytic summary of them and editorial footnotes introduce readers to Hegel's many sources and allusions. For the first time an edition is made available that permits critical scholarly study and translates to the needs of the general reader. Developed specifically to be used in the first part of a two-year global history course, this text covers world history through the enlightenment period. Accessible world history and skills: this comprehensive full-year program is designed to provide key world history content at a manageable reading level. Students of varying abilities learn essential content and appreciate the world's diverse cultures. In addition, the program provides students with the information they need to successfully complete the requirements of rigorous district, state, and national standards. Lexile level 990, reading level 5.6, interest level 6.12. Offers a full-year world history course that provides students with a guided discovery tool and encourages understanding of key world history topics and social studies skills. This book effectively translates author John Green's YouTube video sensation of world history crash courses into guided question worksheets. Students follow along with John Green's online crash courses and reflect upon events in world history using this interactive guiding question workbook. Common Core English standards are followed in all questions asked, helping students tap into level 3 and 4 DOK depth of knowledge thinking skills surrounding events that have occurred throughout US history. History text includes such features as virtual field trips to encourage viewing of history sites on the internet, assessing your skills designed to hone critical thinking skills and taking notes and creating a chapter summary. Exercises provide ways for students to organize content. Secondary level world history journeys from past to present uses common themes to present an integrated and comprehensive survey of human history from its origins to the present day by weaving together thematic and regional perspectives in coherent chronological narratives. Goucher and Walton transform the overwhelming sweep of the human past into a truly global story that is relevant to the contemporary issues of our time. Revised and updated throughout, the second edition of this innovative textbook combines clear chronological progression with thematically focused chapters divided into six parts as follows: Part 1: Emergence, human origins to 500 CE; Part 2: Order, 1 CE to 1500 CE; Part 3: Connections, 500-1600 CE; Part 4: Bridging worlds, 1300-1800 CE; Part 5: Transforming lives, 1500-1900; Part 6: Forging a global community, 1800-present. The expanded new edition features an impressive full-color design with a host of illustrations, maps, and primary source excerpts integrated throughout. Chapter opening timelines supply context for the material ahead, while end-of-chapter questions and annotated additional resources provide students with the tools for independent study. Each chapter and part boasts introductory and summary essays that guide the reader in comprehending the relevant theme. In addition, the companion website offers a range of resources including an interactive historical timeline, an indispensable study skills section for students, tips for teaching and learning thematically, and powerpoint slides, lecture material, and discussion questions in a password-protected area for instructors. This textbook provides a basic introduction for all students of world history incorporating thematic perspectives that encourage critical thinking link to globally relevant contemporary issues and stimulate further study
