Higher Modern Studies: Practice Papers for SQA Exams 2017-07-31 fraud and education gives an informative overview of cheating in examinations in the u s and foreign countries and of the current state of fraud in education and research it differs however from many popular treatises on the same subject in that it is not intended as a blanket condemnation of american or foreign education instead of assigning blame for the prevalence of fraud the authors point to such factors as growth in the number of persons engaged in education and research pressures on individuals to succeed improvements in communications especially the internet and e mail and in techniques of document reproduction

Holding Their Ground 2012-05-23 in this timely work who rules south africa highly regarded authors paul holden and martin plaut analyse the political elites that battle daily for power in south africa they argue that power does not reside in traditional institutions such as parliament or even the cabinet rather power lies within the anc led alliance which with no founding document and no written constitution is an unstructured and mutable political hydra with business and criminal elements in close attendance it is the interaction between these forces which is the real story behind post apartheid south africa in a country where poverty is rampant and institutions are weak the battle for power is set to intensify the authors unravel the mystery of how the rainbow nation has reached such a pass what are the origins of the alliance and will it survive the current power struggles who are the shadowy forces that operate within or alongside the alliance most importantly they seek to answer the burning question of whether south africa is destined to become another african tragedy or whether there is still the promise of growth and a stable democracy

Fraud and Education 2001 school integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies it means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture it means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment in short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion and the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in south africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world this book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in october 2003 attended by leading south african and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change

Who Rules South Africa? 2012-06-14 the centre for child law commissioned this study by cornerstone economic research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery the report written by carmen abdoll and conrad barberton makes the concerning finding that the national department of basic education has woefully underspent the school infrastructure backlog grant for two years running in 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter the asidi target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was 49 however only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year they predict that if the dbe continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023 24 they make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly this study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real
