Annual Report 1885 prior to 1870 the series was published under various names from 1870 to 1947 the uniform title papers relating to the foreign relations of the united states was used from 1947 to 1969 the name was changed to foreign relations of the united states diplomatic papers after that date the current name was adopted

House Documents 1871 e xamines the former congressman melvin laird s efforts to reconstitute the department of defense during the last years of the vietnam war laird acted to mitigate the adverse effects of the vietnam war on the department and to prepare the nation s armed forces for the future foremost was the transition from a conscripted military to an all volunteer force a fundamental policy shift that ended an unpopular and inequitable draft system from jacket

List of Witnesses in the High Court of Admiralty, 1619-49 2010 this set of essays offers new insights into the journalistic process and the pressures american front line reporters experienced covering world war ii transmitting stories through cable or couriers remained expensive and often required the cooperation of foreign governments and the american armed forces initially reporters from a neutral america documented the early victories by nazi germany and the soviet invasion of finland not all journalists strove for objectivity during her time reporting from ireland helen kirkpatrick remained a fierce critic of that country s neutrality once the united states joined the fight after the japanese attack on pearl harbor american journalists supported the struggle against the axis powers but this volume will show that reporters even when members of the army sponsored newspaper stars and stripes were not mere ciphers of the official line african american reporters roi ottley and ollie stewart worked to bolster the morale of black gis and undermined the institutional racism endemic to the american war effort women front line reporters are given their due in this volume examining the struggles to overcome gender bias by describing triumphs of thérèse mabel bonney iris carpenter lee carson and anne stringer the line between public relations and journalism could be a fine one as reflected by the u s marine corps creating its own network of marine correspondents who reported on the pacific island campaigns and had their work published by american media outlets despite the pressures of censorship the best american reporters strove for accuracy in reporting the facts even when dependent on official communiqués issued by the military many wartime reporters even when covering major turning points sought to embrace a reporting style that recorded the experiences of average soldiers often associated with ernie pyle and bill mauldin the embrace of the human interest story served as one of the enduring legacies of the conflict despite the importance of american war reporting in shaping perceptions of the war on the home front as well as shaping the historical narrative of the conflict this work underscores how there is more to learn readers will gain from this work a new appreciation of the contribution of american journalists in writing the first version of history of the global struggle against nazi germany imperial japan and fascist italy
