this manual treats of the structural designs of musical composition not of the styles or species of music it undertakes the thorough explanation of each design or form from the smallest to the largest and such comparison as serves to demonstrate the principle of natural evolution in the operation of which the entire system originates this explanation be it well understood is conducted solely with a view to the analysis of musical works and is not calculated to prepare the student for the application of form in practical composition for the exhaustive exposition of the technical apparatus the student must be referred to my homophonic forms the aim is to enable the student to recognize and trace the mental process of the composer in executing his task to define each factor of the structural design and its relation to every other factor and to the whole to determine thus the synthetic meaning of the work and thereby to increase not only his own appreciation interest and enjoyment of the very real beauties of good music but also his power to interpret intelligently and adequately the works that engage his attention percy goatschius lessons in music form
