winner of the 2019 broken frontier award for best book on comics today fans still remember and love the british girls comic misty for its bold visuals and narrative complexities yet its unique history has drawn little critical attention bridging this scholarly gap julia round presents a comprehensive cultural history and detailed discussion of the comic preserving both the inception and development of this important publication as well as its stories misty ran for 101 issues as a stand alone publication between 1978 and 1980 and then four more years as part of tammy it was a hugely successful anthology comic containing one shot and serialized stories of supernatural horror and fantasy aimed at girls and young women and featuring work by writers and artists who dominated british comics such as pat mills malcolm shaw and john armstrong as well as celebrated european artists to this day misty remains notable for its daring and sophisticated stories strong female characters innovative page layouts and big visuals in the first book on this topic round closely analyzes misty s content including its creation and production its cultural and historical context key influences and the comic itself largely based on round s own archival research the study also draws on interviews with many of the key creators involved in this comic including pat mills wilf prigmore and its art editorial team jack cunningham and ted andrews who have never previously spoken about their work richly illustrated with previously unpublished photos scripts and letters this book uses misty as a lens to explore the use of gothic themes and symbols in girls comics and other media it surveys existing work on childhood and gothic and offers a working definition of gothic for girls a subgenre which challenges and instructs readers in a number of ways there is something visceral about ownership this is mine you can t have it this is mine you can share it this is ours try to find it contemporary literature and investigative journalism are showing that the scale of the problem of tax evasion money laundering organised crime terrorism bribery corruption and gross human rights abuses is vast ownership specifically the quest to identify beneficial owners has been chosen by national and international regulators as the touchstone the litmus test in the fight back an owner by definition must possess something for which they are financially accountable but what is meant by ownership this book explains why ownership is pivotal to accountability and what ownership means in common law civil law and shariah law terms it looks in detail at state regional and international transparency strategies and at an equally powerful global private counter initiative to promote beneficial ownership avoidance through the use of so called orphan structures where there is no owner there is no accountability the distinction between privacy and legitimate confidentiality on the one hand and concealment on the other is explained with reference to commercial and trade law and practice principles of corporate governance and applicable business human rights this book introduces one further counter initiative the phenomenon of transient ownership made possible through the use of cryptocurrency and the blockchain the study concludes with a blueprint for action with recommendations addressed to states international organisations practitioners and other stakeholders when popular protests started in tunisia in late 2010 few anticipated the implications these events would have for the entire arab region in the following years this region witnessed deep changes increased divisions and even failing states meanwhile tunisia managed to assert itself as a new democracy how did this small country manage its democratic transition within such a short period and what implications has this had for its foreign policy and its role in international politics this book assesses tunisia s transition inside and out from four angles tunisian polity and politics which provide the framework for its foreign policy since the arab spring bilateral relations before and after the arab spring tunisia s activism in international organisations as well as their presence in tunisia and transnational issues in tunisia drawing on a broad range of primary sources including authors own interview material conducted with politicians and representatives of civil society and international ngos involved in the transition process the book shows that since 2011 tunisia has not only developed fundamentally at the domestic level but also at the level of external relations new and old alliances a broadening of relations and new activism of civil society and of tunisia in international organisations certify that tunisia has the potential to play an increasingly important role regionally as well as internationally providing an encompassing picture of tunisia s changed role and successful transition from an autocracy to a democracy the book allows students and scholars in the field to understand the last country standing better a country that both the scientific community and the political scene should not underestimate for the promises it holds this book has as its subject matter the academic education of officers and builds on the signing of the bologna declaration in 1999 by twenty nine european ministers for education and science who thereby agreed to coordinate higher education across europe by for instance the implementation of the bachelor s and master s system in the meantime military academies have also introduced the bama system into their programs for officers education which marks a transition from the old days when officers education took place within a national military system under military command and was firmly grounded in principles traditions and needs as professed by the ministries of defence and the armed forces in particular so the bologna declaration can be seen as crucial leverage for the development of in house academic degree programs as a fundamental part of officers education with this volume the editors of nl arms 2019 strive to offer a platform to both academics and military and civilian practitioners as well as to combinations of these to reflect and share their thoughts on officers education before and after bologna both in the netherlands and abroad to this end controversies and challenges affecting various aspects and systems of officers education have been grouped into five themes respectively the first four themes comprise institutional settings and change educational philosophy educational challenges and reflective practices and didactical solutions the fifth theme international perspectives provides insights into the strategic environments and challenges faced by sister academies as well as ways to further officers education across europe such as offered by erasmus programs all the editors of this year s volume are affiliated with the faculty of military sciences of the netherlands defence academy in breda the netherlands
