50 First Words in Portuguese 2024-01-08

first words last words charts an intense pamphlet war that took place in sixteenth century south india yigal bronner and lawrence mcrea explore this controversy as a case study in the dynamics of innovation in early modern india a time of great intellectual innovation this debate took place within the traditional discourses of vedic hermeneutics or m im a ms a and its increasingly influential sibling discipline of ved anta and its proponents among the leading intellectuals and public figures of the period bronner and mcrea examine the nature of theoretical innovation in scholastic traditions by focusing on a specific controversy regarding scriptural interpretation and the role of sequence what comes first and what follows later in determining our interpretation of a scriptural passage vy asat irtha and his grand pupil vijay indrat irtha writers belonging to the camp of dualist ved anta purported to uphold the radical view of their founding father madhva who believed against a long tradition of m im a ms a interpreters that the closing portion of a scriptural passage should govern the interpretation of its opening by contrast the nondualist appayya d ik sita ostensibly defended his tradition s preference for the opening but as this volume shows the debaters gradually converged on a profoundly novel hermeneutic cognitive theory in which sequence played little role if any first words last words traces both the issue of sequence and the question of innovation through an in depth study of this debate and through a comparative survey of similar problems in judaism christianity and islam revealing that the disputants in this controversy often pretended to uphold traditional views when they were in fact radically innovative
