motherhood is full of uncertainty what do my children really need why are they doing that is this normal what can i do to help them how can i know for certain that i am doing this right the logistics are easy anybody can do laundry and carpool but what makes a mother the best mom she can be it s not better scheduling or more activities or less it is passion the passion to teach protect study and prepare her children for the future great but how susan merrill the mother of five incredibly different children has asked that question countless times and she has read countless answers specific to a certain child's temperament, age, or situation but nothing she read offered an overall approach to parenting that would enable her to say with confidence, "I am doing this right." She never guessed she would find a foundational plan, a reliable universal parenting approach in the Old Testament book of Nehemiah. In the passionate mom Susan takes you on a journey through Nehemiah and into the heart of parenting. Her stories and confessions in every chapter reveal what she has learned: no mom can control her child's future, but every mom can parent well. There is a plan, a roadmap for how a passionate mom can parent almost any child confidently. This book reaches mothers like me at both the heart level and the head level, showing us how to guide our children passionately and practically. Shaunti Feldhahn, social researcher, national speaker, and best-selling author of For Women Only: Being a Mother is the Greatest Joy of My Life. This volume focuses on a central question: what does a person need to know for developing a theology? In other words, this book will not only answer objections lodged against the study of theology but will explain to students, pastors, and laypersons alike what a theologian actually does. It will also present different approaches to the study of theology and review the present status of theological reflection in various Protestant, Orthodox, and Roman Catholic traditions. In the first section of the book, evangelical Protestant scholars describe the contributions various disciplines make to the study of theology. In the next section, evangelical Protestant scholars explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology. In the third part, theologians who do not identify with evangelical Protestant convictions seek to explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology. In the final section, Dr. Kantzer provides a summary analysis of how he does theology and interacts critically with a number of essays in this volume.
