education system can feel relentless resulting in students suffering from information overload and exam fatigue but it doesn't have to be like this. John Mitchell strongly believes that revision can be an opportunity to deepen students' understanding of a topic in an innovative, collaborative, and fun way. You just need to think outside the box. In this brilliant book, John Mitchell offers a diverse range of activities, games, tips, and tricks that teachers can use in the classroom to help guide students through this stressful period by combining theory with strategies tried and tested in the classroom. It will help teachers to create a culture where students are encouraged to review and reinforce their learning. This consistent approach means that revision becomes an everyday process rather than one that is just used in the run-up to exams. From adaptations of well-known games such as Connect Four and Runaround to brand-new activities, there are ideas that are suitable for every learning style and subject. 100 ideas for secondary teachers' revision will help you to prepare students for exams effectively, alleviate stress, and reintroduce fun into your revision sessions.

Oswaal NTA CUET (UG) Question Banks | Chapterwise & Topicwise | English, Physics, Chemistry, Math & General Test | Set of 5 Books | Entrance Exam Preparation Books 2024 2005 the Shanghai School System has attracted worldwide attention since its impressive performance in the programme for international student assessment PISA in 2009. The system ranks as a stunning success according to standards of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). Shanghai also stands out for having the world's highest percentage of resilient students, students from socio-economically disadvantaged backgrounds who emerge as top performers. Learning from Shanghai: Lessons on Educational Success offers a close-up view of the people and the policies that have achieved such world-class performance based on research and personal observation gathered during the author's recent field work with school principals, teachers, and students. This book explores the factors that explain Shanghai's exceptional success in education. The approach combines high standards of scholarly research and analysis with the author's unique personal insights as evidenced by chapters entitled 'Education is Filling a Bucket and Lighting a Fire' and 'Tiger Mothers' Dragon Children'. Drawing on her experience as an education professional and a teacher of teachers, Charlene Tan thoroughly examines and analyzes the people, the policies, and the practices that distinguish Shanghai educators. The contents include comprehensive details on the Shanghai approach to quality education, from discussion of the balance between centralization and decentralization to school autonomy and accountability, to testing policy and professional development for teachers. The book includes detailed tables on curriculum and school performance targets, sample appraisal forms for teachers and students, and dozens of photographs. The author is an associate professor at the National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.
