their family's first years 1944-1946 in the Big Bend. Etta describes how her photographer husband Peter Koch became captivated by the region as a place for natural history filmmaking and how she and their three young daughters slowly adapted to a pioneer lifestyle during his months-long absences on the photo lecture circuit. In vivid, often humorous anecdotes, she describes making the rock house into a home, getting to know the park service personnel and other neighbors coping with the local wildlife, and most of all, learning to love the rugged landscape and the hardy individuals who call it home. b t local
