1945 Alling tells with great restraint the story of what it was like to be there over the skies of enemy territory constantly on the look out for German fighters of the enormity of some of the raids they were part of and the consequences for those on the ground of the planes around them that fell out of the sky under enemy attack the horror and the determination to succeed the book gives a unique insight into the lives of one crew of one plane as the war neared its end Charles B. Alling received the distinguished flying cross and the air medal with four oak leaf clusters during the second world war he graduated from Yale University in 1947 in 1988 he retired and studied ethics at Oxford University Graduate School in England in 1989 he founded the Alling Institute for Ethics the institute is affiliated with the Foundation for Leadership and Ethics in New York City of which Alling is chairman emeritus Alling serves on the board of visitors of the Air University at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery Alabama an appointment by former secretary of defense Bill Cohen he lives in Kennebunk Maine in a fascinating way Chuck Alling recalls his days as a pilot flying B-17s over Germany he is truly a member of the Greatest Generation and from his book written from the heart people can learn a lot about the laughs and the tears of World War II former president George H. W. Bush
