In this delightful moving debut novel, Peter Pezzelli brings to life the earthy sensuality of Tuscany: the smell of just-baked bread wafting through the village piazza, the shopkeepers sweeping the sidewalks under the warm early morning sun, groups of cyclists dotting the mountain roads, and spins a story of May-December romance as sharp and delicious as the olives of Villa San Giuseppe. Sometimes you have to travel far to find your way home. After the death of his beloved wife Anna, Peppi's family and friends expect him to bury his grief by tending to his gardens and taking long rides on his bike instead peppi shocks them all with his decision to return to villa san giuseppe the small italian village where he spent his childhood and to il mulino his family s old mill but once he s back he temporarily moves into an apartment over the candy factory run by his childhood best friend luca it is modest but livable with a lovely view of luca s neglected gardens and his equally neglected daughter the fiery lucrezia more a force of nature than a woman lucrezia s legendary temper and workaholic schedule hide the very real pain she feels over her husband s death years before at first she tolerates peppi as an eccentric annoyance her father s strange but handsome american friend who fixes things around the factory and is bringing the gardens back to life but soon lucrezia s interest in peppi deepens like a high wind the gossip is flying through villa san giuseppe lucrezia s making it to dinner on time she s eating olives from a man s hand she s wearing heels now under the warm tuscan sun a tentative romance begins to bloom between the grieving pair yielding to a surprisingly strong passion with the power to heal life s wounds and promise second chances
