creative solutions for bass on the fly the old u va and i 1961 1965 by frank briggs the decade of the 1960s saw sweeping changes at uva as old barriers fell and students of new backgrounds came litigation that lasted from the late 1940s through the end of the 1960s eliminated historic barriers to african american and women students no detailed uva specific narrative has existed until former graduates from two ends of the decade joel gardner ba 1970 rebel yell to revolution in 2018 and now frank briggs ba 1965 recognized that the university had changed in the most profound ways and used their own experiences to document what happened this book will attract anyone who lived through that heady period it will appeal also to others to women and men who grew up later and who may have wondered why and how the good old days ended and america stepped beyond them some might say grew up john t casten iii president emeritus university of virginia 1990 2010 frank briggs s memoir is a highly entertaining trip in time to an era in uva history that predated the social upheavals of the late 1960s we accompany the author through his four years in a cloistered culture of tradition that had not changed over many decades in a series of revealing and amusing anecdotes we relive the road trips party weekends and collegiate shenanigans that dominated the student experience during that period this is a must read for every wahoo who lived through that era or anyone who has an interest in the social history of college life prior to the cultural revolution that swept across the country after briggs s graduation joel b gardner author from rebel yell to revolution my four years at uva 1966 1970 as an old beta and in many other respects as one of the older observers of the university still more or less vertical i salute frank briggs for his most successful undertaking i have encouraged alumni to write memoirs of their student days and frank has done this splendidly alexander g sandy gilliam professor and university historian emeritus university of virginia badger compiles 50 outdoor virginia adventures from the mountains to the ocean that will send readers in pursuit of and the congressional globe 1833 1873 field stream america s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations from western virginia with jackson to spotsylvania with lee presents the diaries and letters of st joseph tucker randolph a young confederate soldier from richmond virginia as might be expected of the son of a bookseller tucker s writings offer lucid and candid descriptions of the civil war unlike most who served randolph fought in both the eastern and western theaters of the war he began the war in the 21st virginia infantry a part of the famed stonewall brigade before moving on to staff roles with henry m ashby in tennessee and john pegram in virginia throughout it all he kept diaries and wrote letters home correspondence his family preserved after tucker s death in action at bethesda church in 1864 tucker s lengthy accounts of campaigning in western virginia in 1861 and early 1862 give many rich characterizations of the area and thomas j stonewall jackson his writings from kentucky and tennessee in 1862 offers trenchant commentary on the failures of the western armies tucker s return to virginia in late 1863 as a staff officer gave him the perfect vantage point to write about robert e lee s army of northern virginia including a particularly vivid account of the battle of spotsylvania in 1864 ample illustrations and maps help bring tucker s writings to life making this book an excellent account of a young confederate soldier s civil war peter c luebke editor of other civil war narratives such as albion tourgée s the story of a thousand and the autobiography of john a dahlgren contextualizes the writings and provides thorough annotation on the people places and events mentioned noted scholar gary w gallagher the john l nau iii professor in the history of the american civil war emeritus at the
