unfolding history and ideas of race have marked its people and the land sand and stone are earth s fragmented memory each of us too is a landscape inscribed by memory and loss one life defining lesson lauret savoy learned as a young girl was this the american land did not hate as an educator and earth historian she has tracked the continent s past from the relics of deep time but the paths of ancestors toward her paths of free and enslaved africans colonists from europe and peoples indigenous to this land lie largely eroded and lost a provocative and powerful mosaic that ranges across a continent and across time from twisted terrain within the san andreas fault zone to a south carolina plantation from national parks to burial grounds from indian territory and the u s mexico border to the u s capital trace grapples with a searing national history to reveal the often unvoiced presence of the past in distinctive and illuminating prose that is attentive to the rhythms of language and landscapes she weaves together human stories of migration silence and displacement as epic as the continent they survey with uplifted mountains braided streams and eroded canyons gifted with this manifold vision and graced by a scientific and lyrical diligence she delves through fragmented histories natural personal cultural to find shadowy outlines of other stories of place in america every landscape is an accumulation reads one epigraph life must be lived amidst that which was made before courageously and masterfully lauret savoy does so in this beautiful book she lives there making sense of this land and its troubled past reconciling what it means to inhabit terrains of memory and to be one this special twelve book bundle is a classical and choral music lover s delight canada s
